

राष्ट्रपति
भारत गणतंत्र
PRESIDENT
REPUBLIC OF INDIA

Message

I wish to convey my greetings to the Indian Army personnel, veterans and families on the occasion of Army Day 2023.

The Indian Army remains at the core of national security of India. The valiant men and women have displayed exemplary professionalism and commitment in defending our borders and saving lives during natural calamities. In the coming years, the contributions and achievements of Indian Army will only increase with India playing a bigger role at the global stage.

I join the people of India in paying tribute to our brave soldiers who sacrificed their lives in service of the nation. The country is indebted to them and their families.

I wish the Indian Army success in all its endeavours. I am confident that it will continue to play the stellar role in defending the nation.
